

CONTENTS

NOVEMBER 2010

COVER STORY

52 | THINK AGAIN: GLOBAL AGING

A gray tsunami is sweeping the planet—and not just in the places you expect. How did the world get so old, so fast?

By Phillip Longman

70 | A Plan B for Obama

A stagnant economy. Declining American influence. Dictators on the march abroad. And a more Republican Congress coming soon. Barack Obama is in big trouble. But it's never too late. FOREIGN POLICY has a plan, 10 in fact, for how the president can find his mojo again.

Avoid the Double Dip By Nouriel Roubini and Michael Moran ■ Take It to the People By Robert Shrum ■ Get Off Oil By R. James Woolsey ■ Build Up the West Bank By Elliott Abrams ■ Make a South Asia Command By Bruce Riedel ■ Stop Fawning Over America's Muslim Allies By Ellen Laipson ■ Rewrite the Rules of War By Will Marshall ■ Give the Public a Green Check By James Hansen ■ Cut (Really Cut) Military Spending By Christopher Preble ■ Dump the Nukes By Joseph Cirincione

78 | The Tyranny of Metaphor

Three historical myths have been leading American presidents into folly for nearly a century. Is Obama wise enough to avoid the same fate? By Robert Dallek

84 | The Sources of Soviet Iranian Conduct

How George Kennan is still the best guide to today's villain inside a victim behind a veil.

By Karim Sadjadpour

MORE FEATURES

60 | Watching the Watchers

Al Qaeda's bold new strategy is all about using our own words and actions against us. And it's working. By Jarret Brachman

Plus: Suburban radical Zach Chesser's how-to guide to waging Internet jihad.

Inside Talibanistan From a distance, you might think the Taliban is a monolithic enemy. Far from it. A special two-page guide to who's who and which Taliban are where. By Peter Bergen, Brian Fishman, and Katherine Tiedemann

88 | The Great Battery Race

A 19th-century technology could determine which nation triumphs in the 21st. An inside report from the global competition to replace the combustion engine. By Steve LeVine
Plus: Gaming the electric car chase.

DEPARTMENTS

16 | Letters

Hall of Famers ■ Party Faithful ■ What Makes a Global City Global? ■ Back to the 'Burbs ■ True North

31 | In Box

Opening Gambit: Moore's flaw By Charles Homans ■ The List: What shape is your recession? ■ History Lesson: Lie of the tiger By Clyde V. Prestowitz ■ Epiphanies from Paul Volcker ■ Prime Numbers: Unemployment By Elizabeth Dickinson ■ Ideas: Fat race, insecurity council ■ "Womenomics": a brief history ■ Reinventing the wheel By William Easterly

IN OTHER WORDS

96 | The Russian Masterpiece You've Never Heard Of

Vasily Grossman's Life and Fate has more to say about human freedom than any other Russian novel of the century. That's probably why it was locked up for so long. By Leon Aron

5 THINGS YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT...

104 | Supermarkets

From Beijing to Brighton, billions of people now can't imagine life without supermarkets. But what forces push us, as we push our carts? By Raj Patel