

CONTENTS

April 2010 Volume 87, No. 4

FOCUS ON

The Foreign Service Role in Haiti

A COMPASSIONATE AND COMPETENT RESPONSE / 17

The work USAID and State have done in Haiti following the Jan. 12 earthquake shows why they should take the lead in disaster response.

By J. Brian Atwood

RELIEF EFFORTS RESONATE IN WEST AFRICA / 21

Naval personnel from three West African nations took part in the relief effort as part of a U.S.-African military program.

By Benjamin East

ECHOES OF GRACE / 24

The local staff who form the backbone of Embassy Port-au-Prince saw their society literally disintegrate in seconds.

By Michael Henning

'THE EXPERIENCE OF A LIFETIME' / 27

Embassy Santo Domingo has played a special role in the disaster relief efforts in neighboring Haiti.

By Team Santo Domingo

TALES FROM THE FIELD / 33

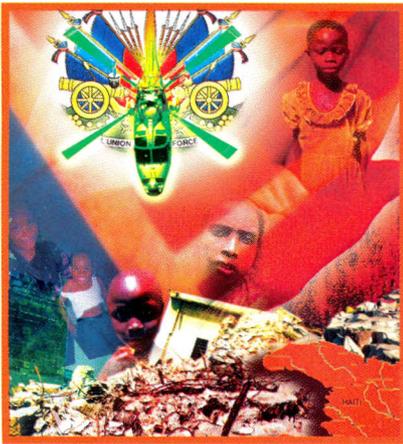

Hundreds of AFSA members from around the world are responding to the crisis in Haiti. Here are some of their stories.

By Steven Alan Honley

REMEMBERING THOSE WE HAVE LOST / 45

One Foreign Service officer, the wife and two children of an FSO and at least six Foreign Service Nationals were among the casualties.

By Susan Brady Maitra

*Cover and inside illustration
by Ben Fishman*

PRESIDENT'S VIEWS / 5

Two Important Blueprints for Labor-Management Collaboration

By Susan R. Johnson

SPEAKING OUT / 14

DNA: The Future of Immigrant Visa Processing

By Simon Hankinson

REFLECTIONS / 72

Courage

By Elisabeth Merton

LETTERS / 7

CYBERNOTES / 10

BOOKS / 63

MARKETPLACE / 64

INDEX TO ADVERTISERS / 70